Director Finance & Business Operations

As a member of a growing team, you will work collaboratively within the team and cross-functionally to build and maintain critical financial analytical tools and business processes. This is a highly visible role within a rapidly growing and dynamic technology business. This position will be exposed to all critical functions of the business, including the Board of Directors, vendors and potential clients.

QCash Financial provides an automated, cloud-based mobile lending platform. The platform enables financial institutions to quickly provide short-term loans to the people they serve, in order to improve their lives and enable their financial sustainability.

We are seeking a Director of Finance & Business Operations to be responsible for driving our business plan and performance/business analysis. The ideal candidate will be a data-driven individual with an analytical eye toward problem solving and have financial modeling experience with an ability to drive sustainable impact across the organization

How you'll make an impact and what you'll do:

- Business Planning: Drive business planning for our growth engine across different products and geographies.
- Performance Analysis: Drive performance analysis and create awareness and understanding.
- Business Analytics: Partner with team leads to help make financially sound, operationally efficient decisions on growth programs, pricing structures, unit economics, product expansion and other high priority projects.
- Strategy & Finance: Provide analytical support on special projects by including financial assessment of acquisitions, business partnerships, new business lines, and other strategic initiatives.
- Investor Relations: Assist in managing investor relations and preparation of Board level materials.
- Systems & Process Building: Continuously improve reporting frameworks, tools and processes to ensure access to timely, accurate and actionable data across company.

What you'll need:

- Experience: Experience in technology, small business, accounting and finance. Technology industry and SaaS experience a plus.
- Technical skills: Excel ninja with the superpower to develop insightful financial models and quantitative analysis, paired with critical thinking and sound business judgment. Salesforce, Intacct, Office365 and AR/AP experience a plus.
- Soft skills: Ability to eloquently distill and communicate complex topics broadly to Board members, team members and everyone in between. You are proactive and have a positive attitude with a can-do, service-oriented mentality.
- Entrepreneurial: Self-starter with a high degree of ability to work autonomously in a fast-paced environment and tend to blades of grass while not losing sight of the broader vision and opportunity.
- Discipline: Impressive time management skills and ability to balance multiple projects and tasks with various stakeholders while meeting deadlines on time sensitive projects.
- Precision: Sharp attention to detail with a natural feel for numbers and data, and have a high degree of accuracy in a fast-paced, results-oriented environment.
- Life-time learner: Acknowledge the importance of learning all day and every day, demonstrated by your ability to listen first mentality and strong desire to continuously improve through self-education.

Organizational Culture & Office Environment:

Our staff is a small, tight-knit team that is driven by a shared passion for achieving our mission and vision. We are highly adaptive, fun, collaborative, and always willing to “roll up our sleeves” to get stuff done – whether it’s a strategic initiative or assisting in supporting clients.

We value an environment where every voice counts and staff are empowered to be open and to share their opinions. Differences are honored, and constructive criticism is welcome as we collectively strive to learn and improve. There are times when the work environment is intense, but the tension is easily broken with a good laugh and affectionate ribbing.
